EMV Chip & PIN

What is EMV Chip & PIN Credit Card?

An EMV Chip & PIN Credit Card is a Credit Card with an embedded microchip. This microchip stores the Card member information and the PIN in an encrypted format. This PIN is known only to the Cardholder thus providing enhanced security against possible misuse. The EMV Chip & PIN is a superior level of security on your Credit Card, in line with best global practices. It thus provides an additional layer of safety against counterfeit and skimming related fraud.

How will I use the IndusInd Bank EMV Credit Card on a chip (POS – point of sale) terminal?

When you use an EMV Chip & PIN Credit Card at a POS terminal which is enabled for PIN Transactions, the POS machine will prompt you to enter a 4 digit PIN. Once you enter the correct Credit Card PIN in the terminal, your transaction will be approved.

Please follow the below process for a successful transaction:

- Step 1: The merchant inserts your Credit Card in the Card slot at a PIN enabled POS terminal and enters the transaction amount.
- Step 2: The POS machine prompts for a 4 digit PIN to be entered by the Cardholder.

Step 3: On entering the correct Credit Card PIN in the machine, the transaction is approved.

At POS terminals, which do not support the PIN authentication, your EMV Chip Credit Card needs to be inserted in the Chip slot and your transaction will be completed as it is done today.

At POS terminals, which do not support an EMV Chip Credit Card, the Card can be swiped at the merchant terminal and your transaction will be completed as it is done today.

Will I need to enter PIN at every POS terminal(s) be it Domestic or International?
